We welcome any person who supports the goals of our organization to become a member. A full membership is for the person who wants to participate on a regular basis in activities and decision making and will attend the annual meeting. A full member may hold office and can vote at meetings. A supporting membership is for those individuals who want to show their support for Rescue but do not plan on attending meetings or other events. A supporting member may not hold office or vote at meetings.

Your financial support is very welcome and needed. For those interested in active participation, below are the areas in which we could use your help.
